

Gentle MASCULINITY.com

Archetypal Masculinity Workshop

Being Braveheart in a PC* World

Workshop Description

Can you express The Warrior character in a world that rejects masculinity?

Are you trying to raise brave boys but instead settling for polite?

The warrior may be the most common expression of 'the real man' in Western culture, however with so many immature expressions of this archetype of masculinity, how can we recover the gifts of The Warrior? What are those gifts? What conditions might need to be present for healthy, life generating and powerful Warriors to emerge?

*Politically Correct

Workshop Facilitator

Steve Johnson is the director of Gentle Masculinity.com.

He has worked as an addiction counsellor, manager and lecturer in human services for over a decade.

Steve, in his spare time is a mentor, life-long student of theology and avid fantasy-fiction reader. He is married to Amy and father to Luke & Kayla.

Greatest accomplishment: building a BBQ.

Guest Contributor: Rev. Malcolm Rawlings

Sunday 1st of March, 1-4pm | Henley Fulham Uniting Church | $25pp

Registration essential at www.gentlemasculinity.com