Topic: How men change – a thin time

The mystics spoke of liminal space or the role of the desert in helping us discover our souls. How does a man use liminal space to grow? When is this likely to happen, and what are the dangers hidden in this space?

Heidelberg Friday, March 20, 7.30pm

The Café of Dangerous Ideas Sycamore Tree Coffee Shop 185 Burgundy Street Heidelberg

RSVP and more information: Paul Toms Email: tomsy.artist@gmail.com

Topic: Transcending the White Male System

Western white males are right and have might. But this system of domination traps men – and the planet - in a cycle of violence, addiction and performance. The system is self-validating and immune to critique. How does a man transcend it into true freedom and planet-restoring empathy?

Surrender Conference, Belgrave Workshop, Saturday, March 21, 2pm-3.30pm

Topic: Finding manhood

For men, understanding and integrating our identity as a man is key to our ability to walk alongside others in the way God has designed us to. Hear and share perspectives of rites of passage and their importance in the path to manhood

Essendon Sunday, March 22, 7.30pm

Essendon Baptist Church 134/138 Buckley Street, Essendon

RSVP and more information: Andy Stevens Email: andy@handyandymc.com.au

Topic: Falling into life: the journey of letting go

The first half of life is about ascent, achievement. Men build their identity on what they can do. How does a man transition his identity in who he really is? Why do men find letting go so difficult and why doesn't the church have the answers?

Ashburton Monday March 23, 7.30pm

Wellspring Centre 10 Y Street, Ashburton

RSVP and more information: The Wellspring Centre. Email: info@wellspringcentre.org.au

Topic: Authentic male spirituality – what does it look like?

Ancient wisdom pictured men very different to how Western religion portrays it. This often leaves men confused and disconnected. How can faith be expressed through uncertainty and doubt, and what are the Biblical archetypes of this spirituality?
